Father's Day Service @ 8 Goulburn St, Hobart

The background of the image shows the silhouettes of two people standing in a field of tall grass. On the left, a person stands with their back to the camera, arms slightly out. On the right, another person stands facing the first person. The sky is a warm, hazy orange and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The text is overlaid on this background in a white, serif font.

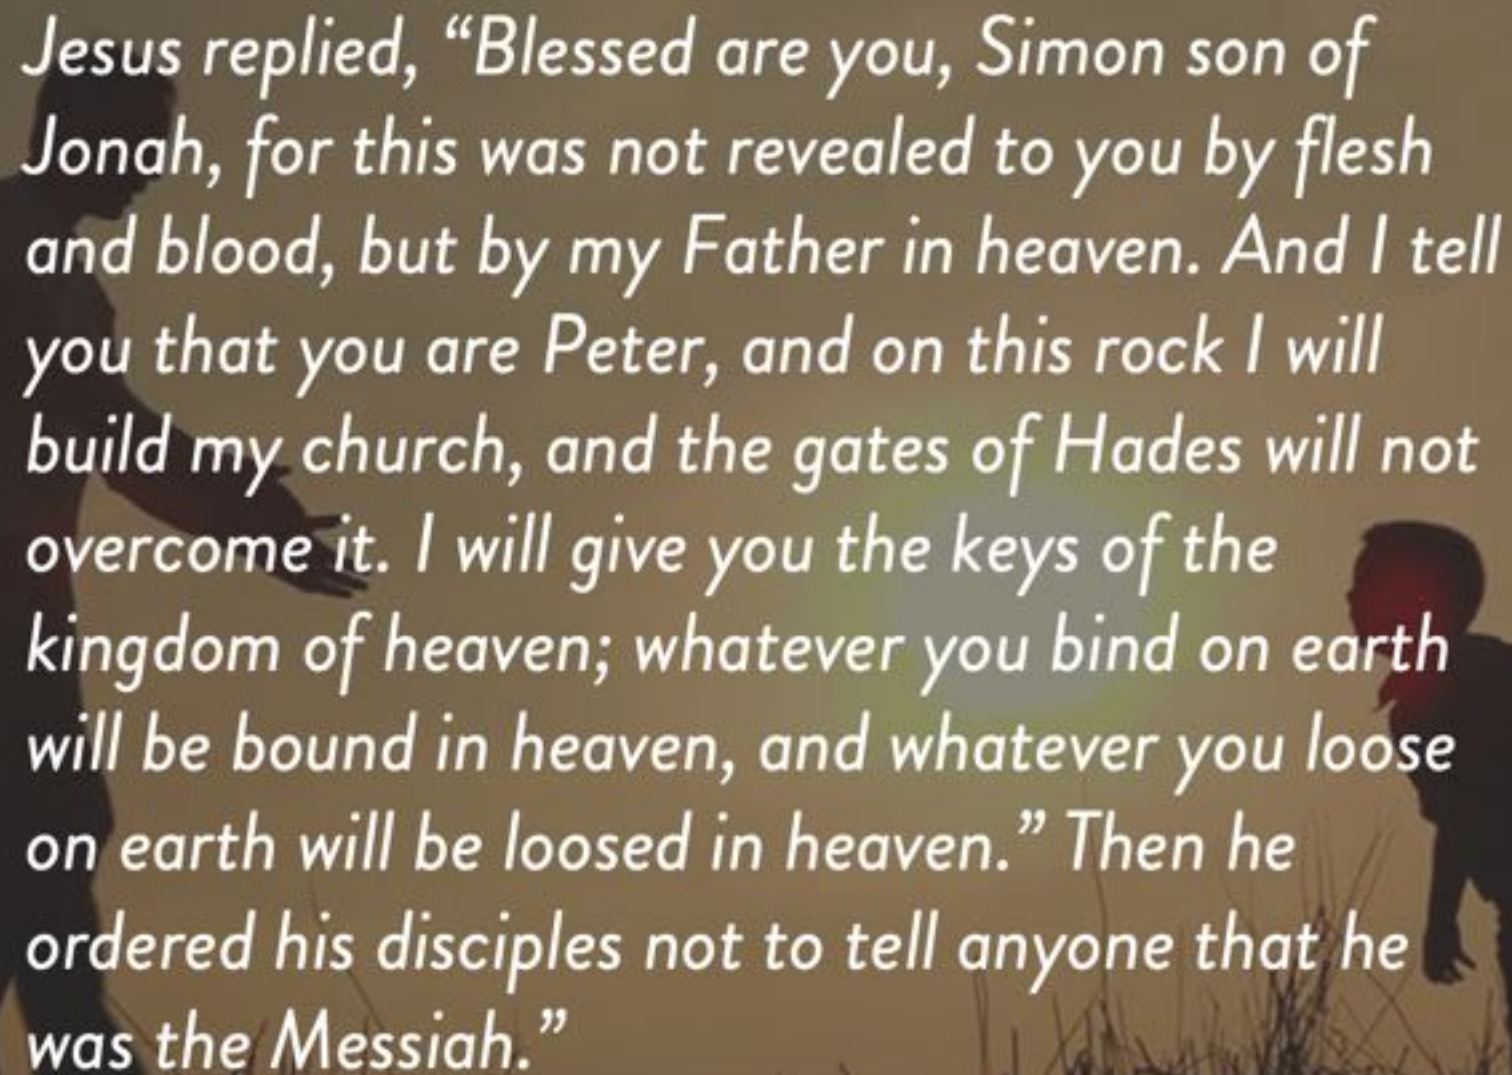

“When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

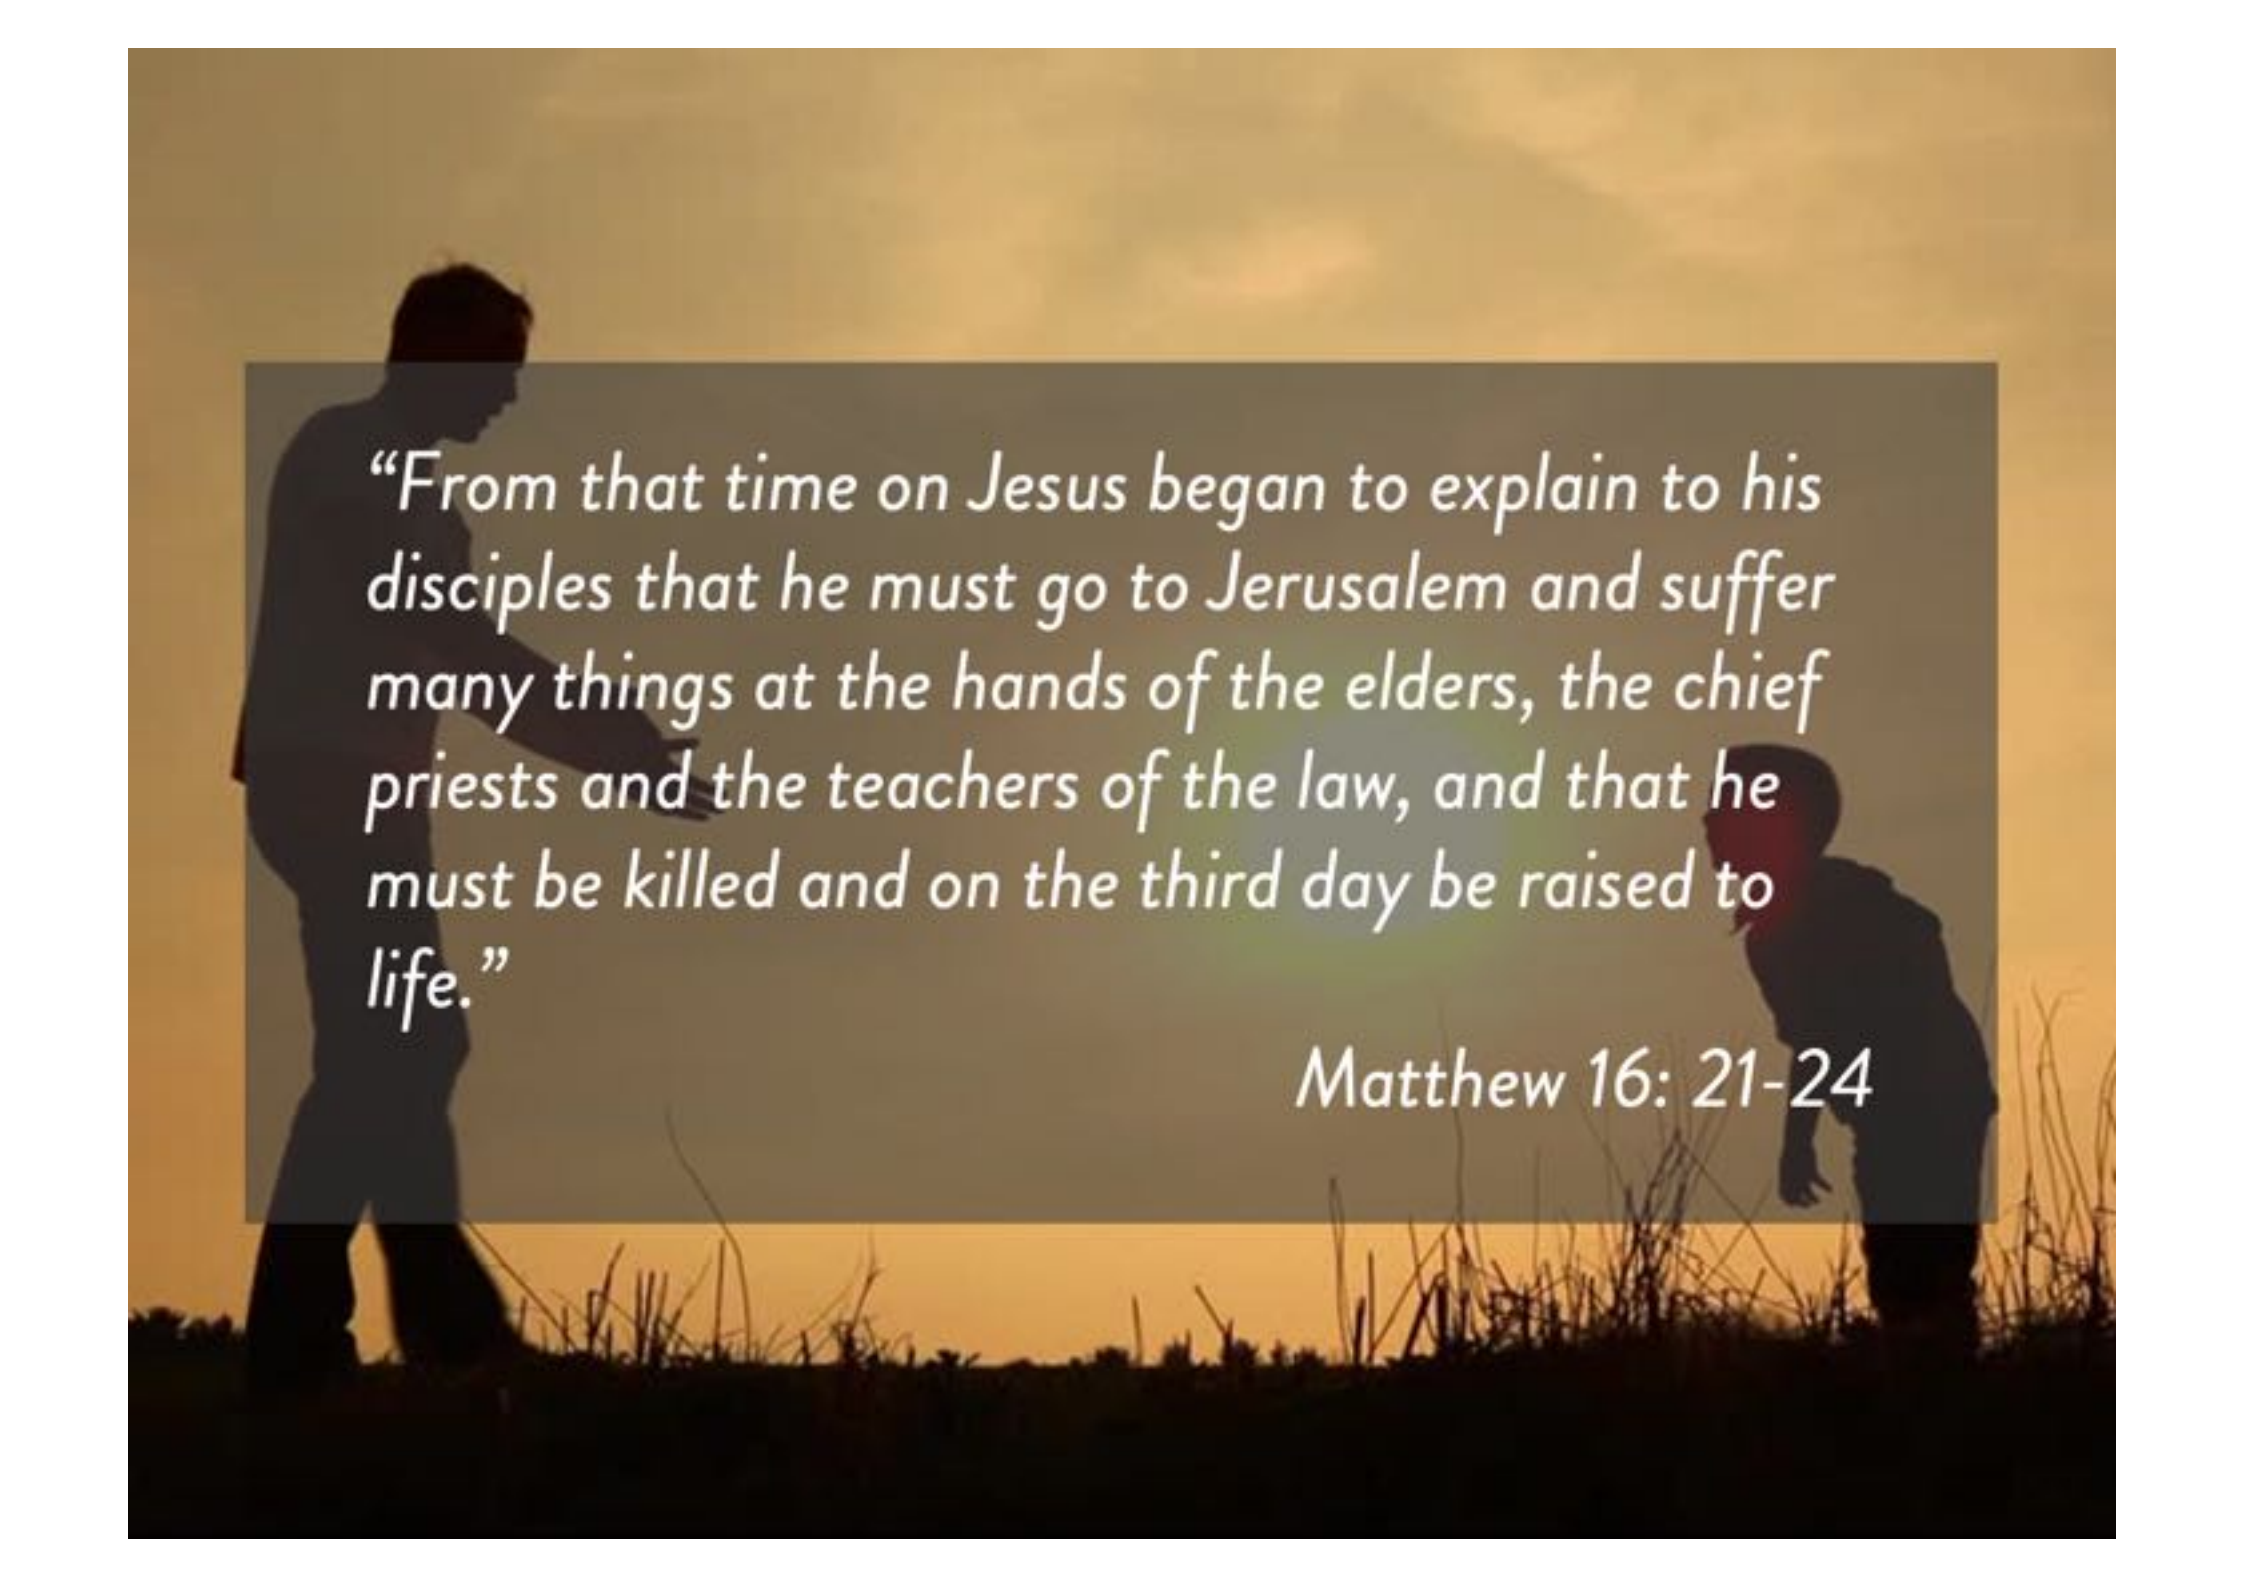

“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”

Matthew 16: 13-20

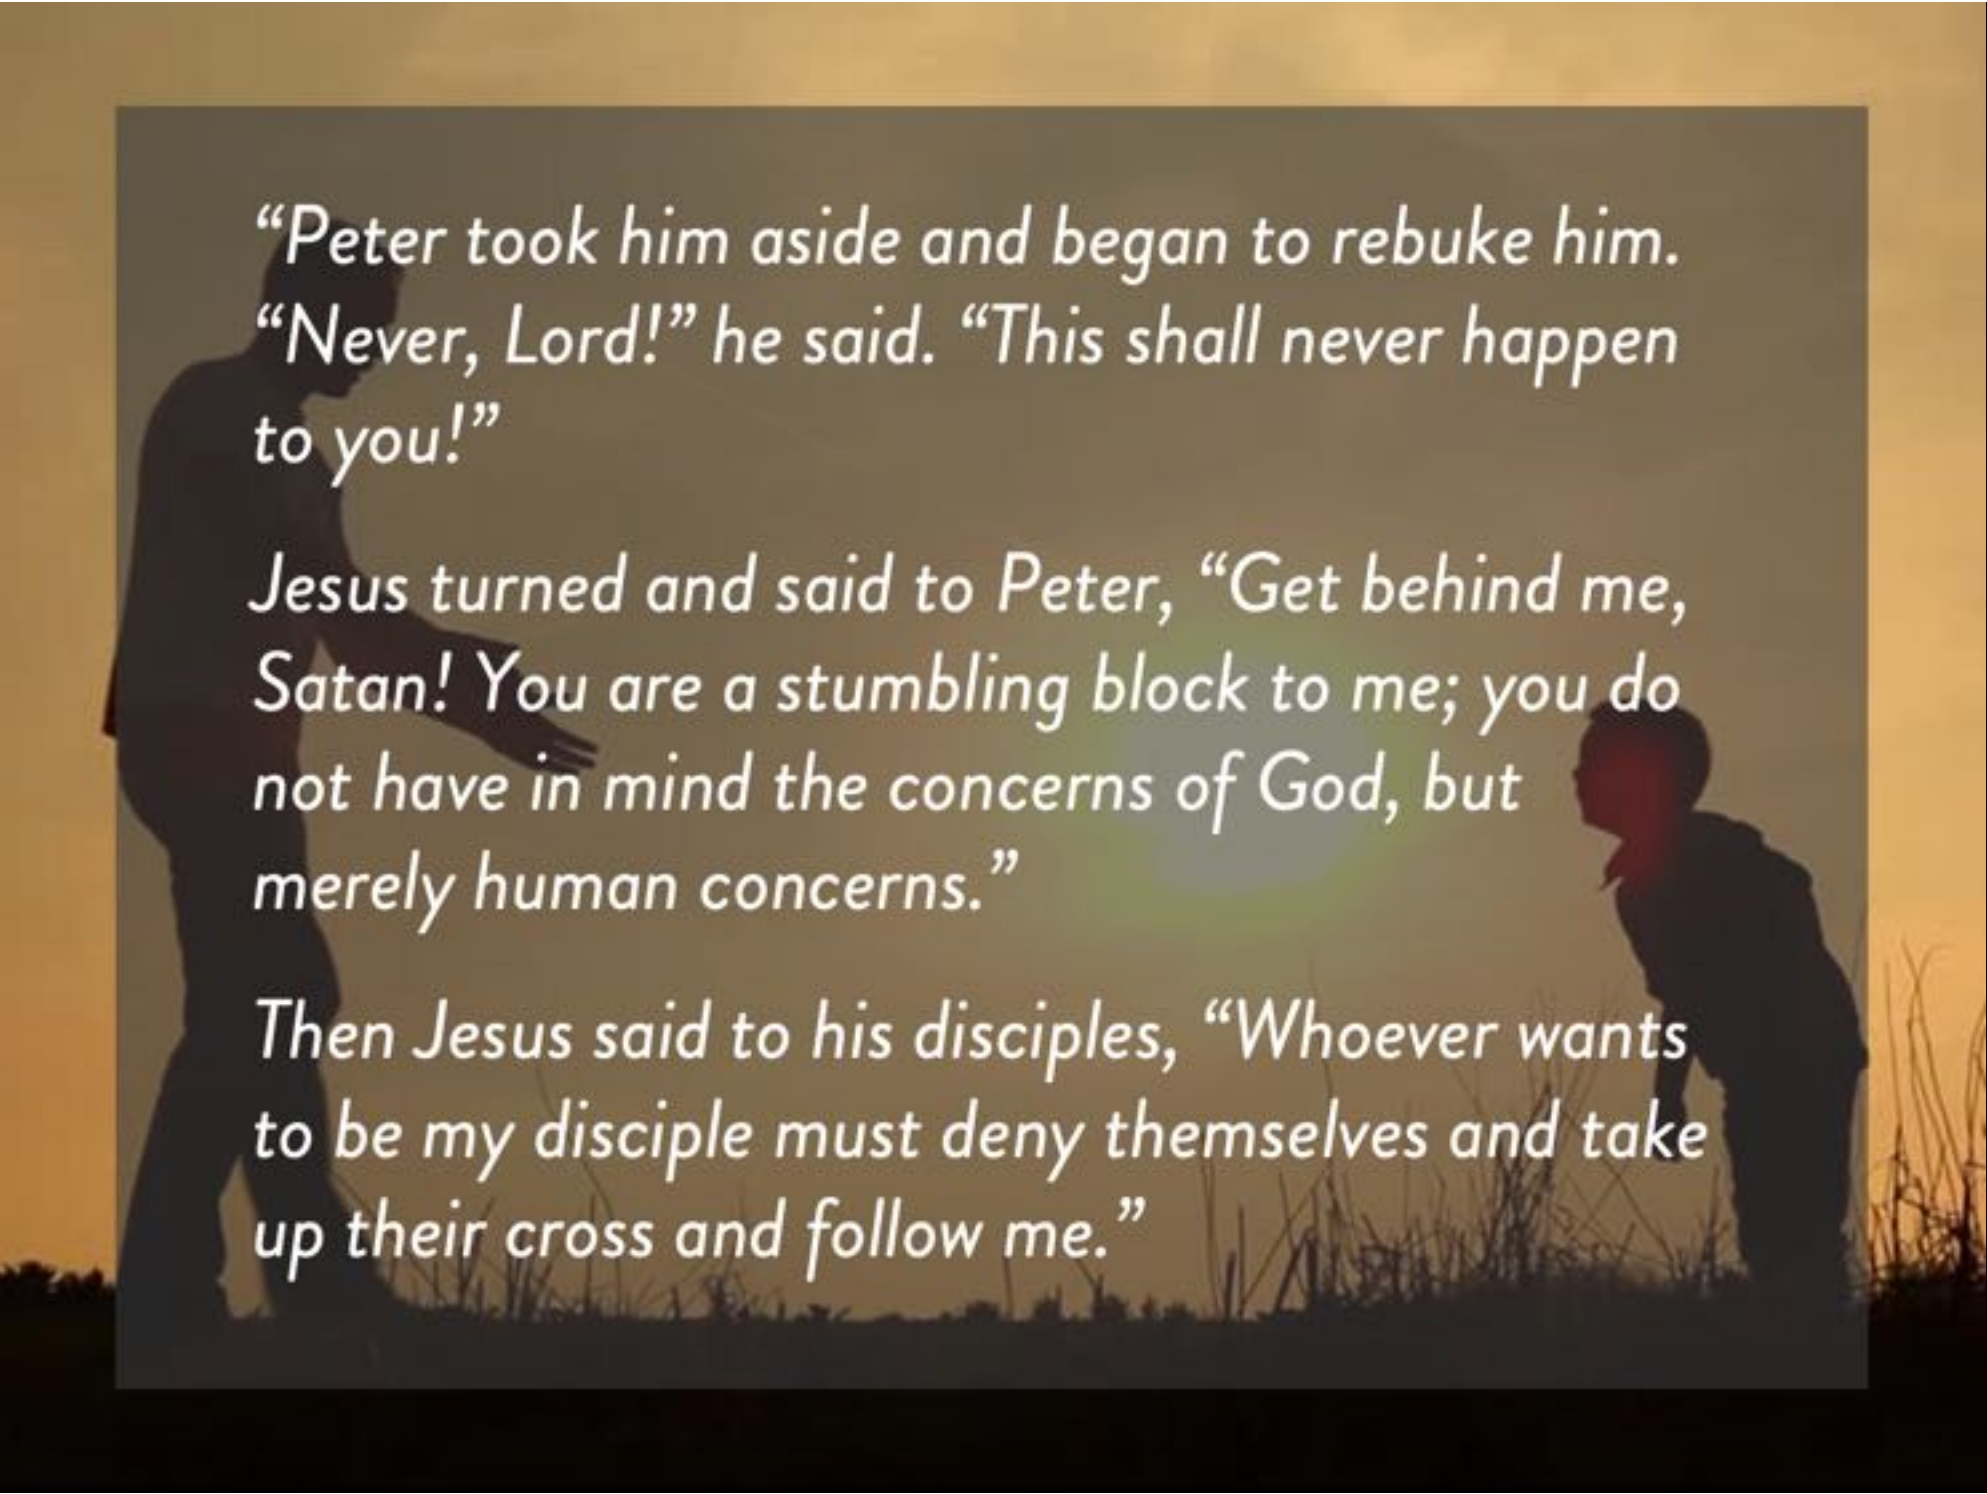

The background of the image shows the silhouettes of two figures, Jesus and Peter, standing in a field of tall grass at sunset. Jesus is on the left, gesturing with his right hand towards Peter. Peter is on the right, leaning forward and looking up at Jesus. The sky is a warm orange and yellow, and the grass is dark in the foreground.

Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in heaven. And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he ordered his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah."

The image features a warm, golden sunset sky as the background. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of a man and a young child are visible. The man is on the left, standing and looking towards the right. The child is on the right, crouching or kneeling. A semi-transparent grey rectangular box is centered over the image, containing white text. The text is a quote from the Bible, specifically Matthew 16:21-24, which describes Jesus' prediction of his death and resurrection to his disciples.

“From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.”

“Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. “Never, Lord!” he said. “This shall never happen to you!”

Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.”
