“I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.”

Jesus

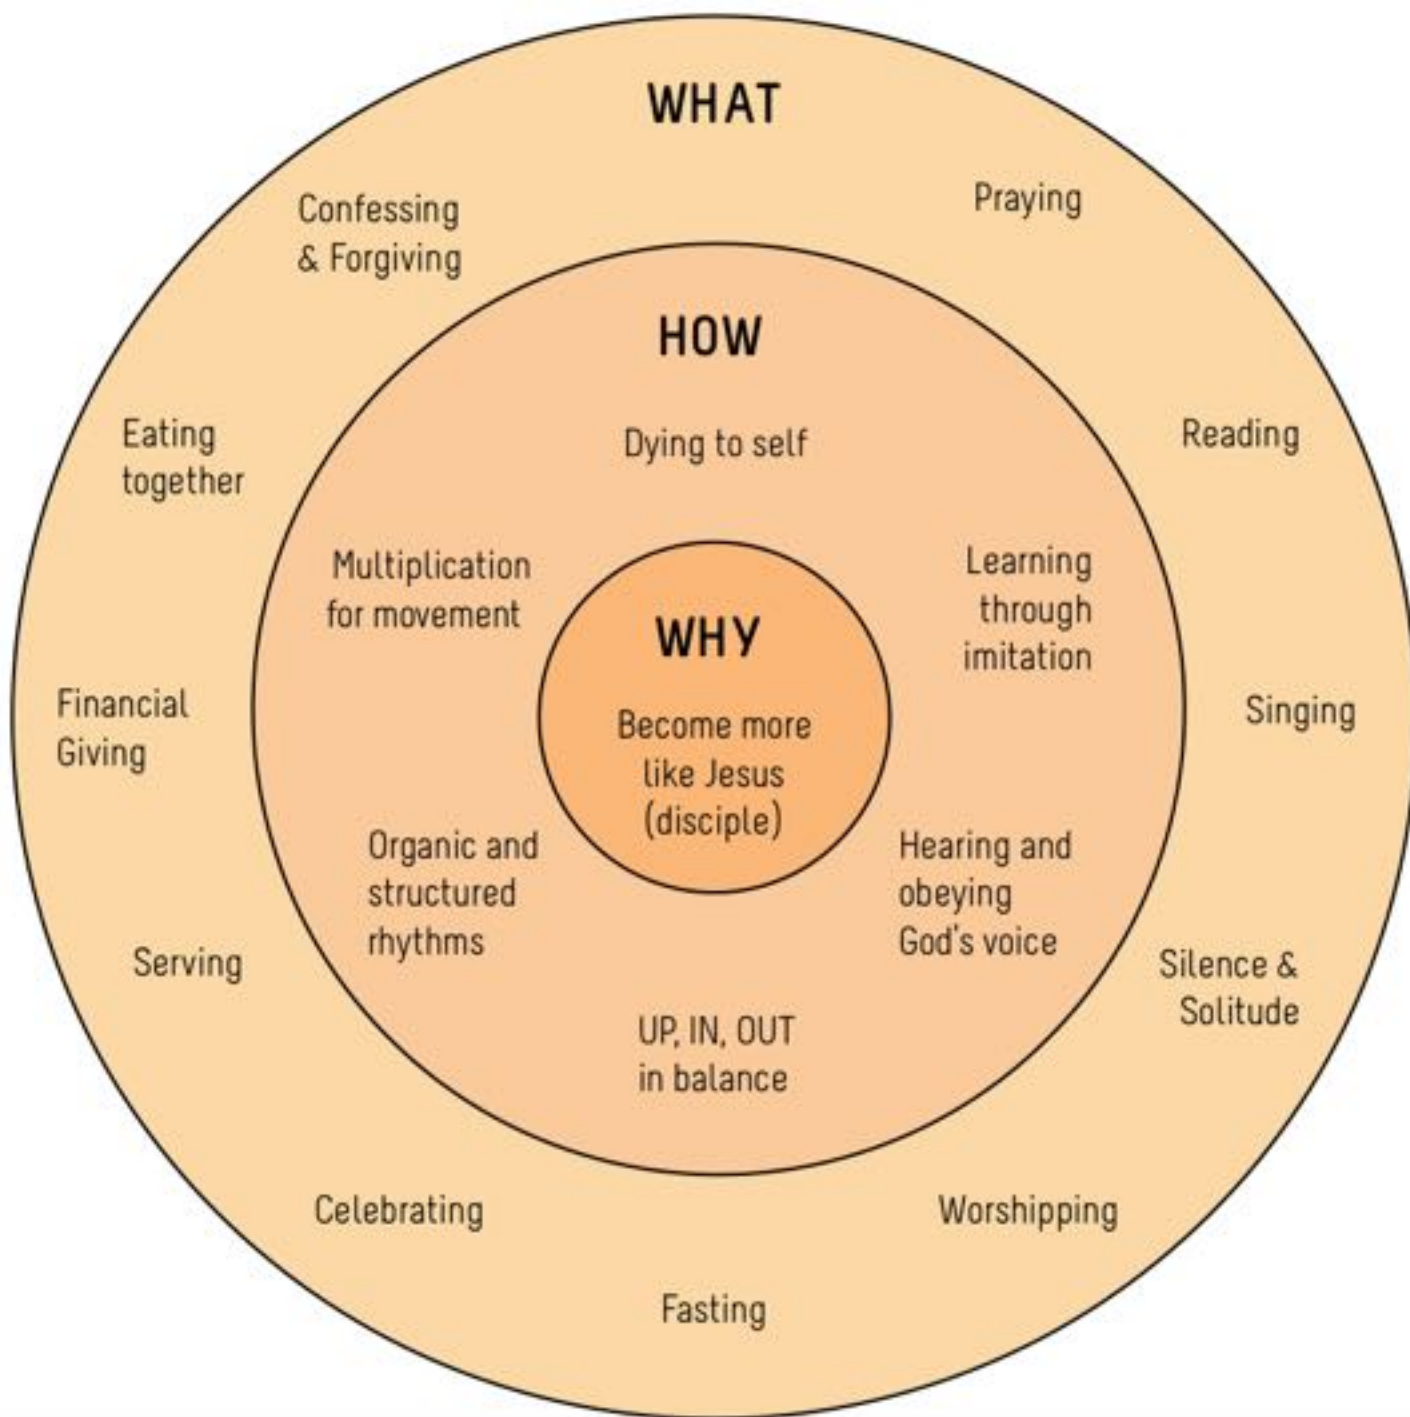

John 10:10 (NKJV)

“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

MULTIPLYING MOVEMENTS

A photograph of a man in a light blue button-down shirt being baptized in water. Another person's hands are visible, holding the man's arms. The scene is outdoors, and the water is dark. A semi-transparent text box is overlaid on the image.

*Jesus does not call us to be disciples, but to make disciples.
Disciple-makers are passionate about showing people how to become like Jesus, reproducing his love in the lives of others*

Do you see yourself as a disciple who makes disciples?

“On hearing this, Jesus slipped away privately by boat to be alone. But when the crowds discovered he had sailed away, they emerged from all the nearby towns and followed him on foot. So when Jesus landed he had a huge crowd waiting for him.

Seeing so many people, his heart was deeply moved with compassion toward them, so he healed all the sick who were in the crowd.”

Matthew 14: 13-21

“Later that afternoon the disciples came to Jesus and said, “It’s going to be dark soon and the people are hungry, but there’s nothing to eat here in this desolate place. You should send the crowds away to the nearby villages to buy themselves some food.”

“They don’t need to leave,” Jesus responded. “You can give them something to eat.”

They answered, “But all we have is five barley loaves and two fish.”

“Let me have them,” Jesus replied. Then he had everyone sit down on the grass as he took the five loaves and two fish. He looked up to heaven, gave thanks to God, and broke the bread into pieces. He then gave it to his disciples, who in turn gave it to the crowds. And everyone ate until they were satisfied, for the food was multiplied in front of their eyes!

They picked up the leftovers and filled up twelve baskets full! There were about five thousand men who were fed, in addition to many women and children!”

Jesus was physically and emotionally empty, but gave what he had to heal others.

Jesus blessed the fish and made a feast.
Around Jesus, there is abundance, not scarcity.

Jesus performed the miracle of multiplication
through the hands of his disciples

Jesus can multiply our nothing into something.
He can turn our little into lots.

*How does this story speak to you personally?
Are you willing for God to multiply your little into lots?*
